Palm Beach County Cancels Natural Areas Festival and Postpones 5K/10K

Based on the recommendations of Governor Ron DeSantis, and out of an abundance of caution for the health and safety of our residents and visitors, Palm Beach County has made the decision to cancel the Natural Areas Festival planned for Saturday, March 14th at Winding Waters Natural Area in West Palm Beach.

The associated Run for the Natural Areas 5k/10k Trail Race will be postponed until further notice. Runners who have signed up will be notified of the new date once those details are available.

ERM would also like to remind everyone that during this stressful time where calm and community cohesiveness are paramount, that Palm Beach County's Natural Areas are some of the best and safest places to get outdoors, center your mind and enjoy the wonderful mental and physical health benefits of spending time in nature while still keeping you and your loved ones safe. Find out where you can explore safely at www.pbcerm.com
